Nareit Hawaii Donates $25,000 to Support The Salvation Army Programs to Feed the Hungry in 2023

HONOLULU – Nov. 14, 2022 – Nareit Hawaii today presented The Salvation Army with a grant of $25,000 to support its “Love Beyond Thanksgiving” initiative to help feed families, children and the elderly on Oahu in need of assistance in 2023.

The Salvation Army reports that demand for food by the public in response to hunger has increased 50% since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. Nareit Hawaii’s grant will support The Salvation Army’s efforts to provide various food programs in communities to meet this urgent need.

“All of us at The Salvation Army are so grateful to Nareit Hawaii for their generous donation to help support our food programs and celebrate the resumption of our Thanksgiving Meal at Blaisdell Exhibition Hall,” said Major Phil Lum, Divisional Commander, The Salvation Army Hawaiian & Pacific Islands. “We are looking forward to gathering our community together again as we observe the 50th anniversary of the free meal. Our hearts are filled with gratitude and appreciation for Nareit Hawaii and all of our corporate sponsors who are making this possible.”

Nareit Hawaii Executive Director Gladys Quinto Marrone said, “Addressing hunger is a daunting challenge and it’s gratifying to know The Salvation Army is constantly working to keep our fellow residents fed. We are grateful for their compassion and commitment to help the less fortunate.”
